If you are the mother of, or expecting, twins or higher multiples, joining High Desert Mothers of Multiples (HDMOMS) can be a fun and rewarding experience!! HDMOMS was started in 1991 to promote charity and family unity. HDMOMS is an active non-profit organization providing opportunities to make friends and share the joys and challenges of raising multiples. Though we are primarily a women's organization, your entire family will benefit from membership in HDMOMS.

You will receive ... "Multiplicity Press" - our monthly newsletter full of helpful Information. Membership and newsletters from the Southern California Mothers of Twins Clubs and the National Organization of Mothers of Twins Clubs. Special discounts on twin related items.

Opportunities to participate in many different activities including:

Monthly meetings to discuss the care and development of multiple birth children, as well as other topics of interest, with other mothers of multiples and the occasional guest speaker.

Children's play groups and socials

Family outings and adult socials

Holiday celebrations

State and National Conventions & Workshops

Annual fundraisers and charity events and much, much more.
